Suggested itinerary :

Day 01 - Singapore / Perth

Arrive Perth and collect your Hertz rental car. Proceed to Perth and check in to your hotel.
Hit the shops in Perth e.g. Shopping centers like Myer, Westfield Carousel or Harbourtown, the factory outlet mall.
Overnight: Duxton Hotel (Deluxe Room) [Full breakfast up to 2 people per room]

Day 02 - Perth / Mandurah

Approximately 74km south of Perth, the once tiny fishing village of Mandurah is an easy hour's drive from Perth city .
Mandurah is blessed with a unique blend of coast, bushland, industry and inner-city living. A tourist's paradise, it's also the capital of the Peel region and considered the gateway to the South West.
Take a scenic canal cruise along Mandurah's magnificent waterways and find lovable Bottlenose dolphin schools. Pick up some local arts and crafts or fresh produce at one of Mandurah's markets.
Overnight: Seashells Resort Mandurah (1bedroom Apartment / 2bedroom Apartment for 3A, 2A1C & 2A2C)

Day 03 - Mandurah - free day in Mandurah to visit the attractions near by ...

Overnight: Seashells Resort Mandurah (1bedroom Apartment / 2bedroom Apartment for 3A, 2A1C & 2A2C)

Day 04 - Mandurah / Margaret River

Head for Bunbury to enjoy some wines from the Geographe Wine Region. Enjoy lunch at one of the many Bunbury cafes or restaurants before continuing south to Busselton. Visiting Busselton Jetty is a 'must-do' experience in Busselton.
Extending almost 2km out over the protected waters of Geographe Bay, the heritage listed BUSSELTON JETTY is the longest timber jetty (pier) in the Southern Hemisphere. The new $3.5 million dollar Underwater Observatory, now opened heralds the dawn of a new era in the life of the heritage-listed 137 year old jetty, establishing itself as one of Western Australia's major eco-tourism attractions. Next stop is the world-renowned Margaret River Wine Region.
Overnight: Seashells Resort Yallingup (1bedroom Apartment / 2bedroom Apartment for 3A, 2A1C & 2A2C)

Day 05 - Margaret River / Pemberton / Margaret River

Continue your wine wander filling in the morning with galleries and attractions before a sumptuous winery lunch.
Travel through to Pemberton where majestic karri trees are dotted around picture-postcard wineries. Climb up the Gloucester Tree (probably Western Australia's most famous karri tree) which towers at 61 metres high above the forest surrounding Pemberton. Don't forget to try the region's delicacy, marron, a freshwater crayfish that provides a unique gourmet treat when enjoyed with a glass or two of fine local wine; or bring home souvenirs from boutique attractions like lavender farms, cheese factories and chocolate factory.
Overnight: Seashells Resort Yallingup (1bedroom Apartment / 2bedroom Apartment for 3A, 2A1C & 2A2C)

Day 06 - Margaret River / Perth / Singapore

Take the journey back to Perth passing through the Blackwood River Valley known for its cider and fruit wines.
Drop off your car at Perth airport for your afternoon flight back to Singapore.

Must See & Must Do ...

The Blue Duck Cafe - 151, Marine Parade, Cottesloe. Tel (08) 9385-2499 www.blueduck.com.au

20 to 25 minutes drive west of Perth. Offer casual cosmopolitan dining, with innovative, modern cuisine; with a complimentary spectacular ocean view across the Indian Ocean.

Cicerello's - 44, Mews Road, Fremantle. Tel (08) 9335-1911 www.cicerellos.com.au

- Unit 2/73 Mandurah Terrece, Mandurah. Tel (08) 9535-9777

Cicerello's seafood is so fresh, you'll think they are straight from the waters! The restaurant at Fremantle got a 22-metre aquarium displaying over 50 species of Fremantle marine life right in the middle of the restaurant.

Bouvard Cruises - Boardwalk Mandurah. Tel (08) 9581-1242 www.bouvardcruises.com.au

Bouvard Cruises offer a truly wonderful way to see just some of the Mandurah waterways, with a pleasant commentary of the past, present and future of the region.

Goanna Gallery - Lot 1, Hayes Road, Dunsborough. Tel (08) 9759-1419

Sprouting like an oasis in the middle of the Australian Bush, this idyllic stopover is perfect for a break. A gallery featuring unique home ware and exclusive artworks, a gift shop stocked with Corrynne's natural soap products and a café all rolled in one, parents and kids will love its cosy atmosphere. Closed on Wednesdays.

Happs Vineyard and Pottery - 571, Commonage Road, Dunsborough. Tel (08) 9755-3300 www.happs.com.au

What makes this winery different is not just the pottery studio beside the cellar but the palpable sense of fun exuding from this family-owned establishment. The Happs don't take themselves too seriously. Erl Happ, a winemaker and potter, likens himself to an artist when making wine. His experimentation with new flavours gave birth to their famous aromatic Fuchsia wine, a creative variation of the traditional rose. If you are after something stronger, go for their award-winning wines under the Three Hills label.

Food Farmacy - Shop 9, 32 Dunn Bay Road, Dunsborough. Tel (08) 9759-1877

Popular with families, this light-hearted eatery is nonetheless quite chic, and despite various puns along the pharmacy theme (test tubes as condiment holders) maintains an element of citified style.

Busselton Jetty, Interpretive Centre and Underwater Observatory - Beach end of Queen Street, Busselton.

Tel (08) 9754-3689 www.downsouth.com.au

Described as Australia's greatest artificial reef, the Busselton Jetty is host to an awe inspiring "forest" of vividly-coloured tropical and sub-tropical marine life.

Cape Lavender - Carter Road (off Metricup Road), Wilyabrup, Margaret River. Tel (08) 9755-7552 www.capelavender.com.au

Dotted with purple blooms of lavender, you'll forget this is a vineyard - until you taste the world's first lavender wines and champagne. At Cape Lavender's award-winning restaurant, the lavender tea and scones with lavender jam are not to be missed. Also stock up on other goodies, like their sweet-smelling lavender body and bath products. With all that wondrously relaxing lavender in the air, you'll feel a natural high here.

Voyager Estate - Stevens Road, Margaret River. Tel (08) 9757-6354 www.voyagerestate.com.au

Wining and dining don't get classier than at Voyager's. Inside the elegant Cape-Dutch inspired white building, you'll be greeted by lush carpeting, chandeliers and plush sofas around a cosy fireplace. A top-notch menu complemented by excellent wines and a view of the spectacular rose gardens make it a perfect respite for those with discerning taste.

Lamont Winery-Margaret River - Gonyulgup Valley Drive, Yallingup. Tel (08) 9755-2434 www.lamonts.com.au

Lamont's Margaret River is located off Caves Road in the Gonyulgup Valley, 5 minutes from Yallingup in the Margaret River wine region. Enjoy relaxing on the deck enjoying renowned Lamont fare experiencing their famous a la carte dining overlooking the beautiful lake setting.

Must Winebar - 519 Beaufort Street, Highgate. Tel (08) 9328-8255 www.must.com.au (7 minutes by car from Perth CBD)

Must Winebar is cool and relaxed with a wine list that boasts 40 by the glass, 500 on the master list, premium beers and slick cocktails, to the vibes of French house and other smooth grooves. Chef Russell Blaikie leads a dynamic team presenting contemporary French cuisine that is fresh, honest and simple - food just made for wine.
